

Once or twice in a century an issue arises...so far reaching in its consequences, and so deep in its foundations that it calls every person to take a stand. –Judge John Noonan

We are going to take a walk through history. What is it that today is calling everyone to take a stand? What is the sole issue that we are confronted with today?

I. FOUNDATIONS: DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness...

These words, written over two hundred years ago, became the very foundation of what the United States of America stands for. Yet in the past hundred years, millions of American citizens have been denied the rights and truths encompassed in this statement.

- A. Legalized abortion has defied the unalienable right to Life and allowed the most marginalized and voiceless group in America to be slaughtered in the womb. Yet this injustice did not begin with denying Life. It began when we embraced the ideals of eugenics and rejected the first truth, that all men are created equal. Only by exposing the roots of legalized abortion in a legacy of eugenics can America have a full understanding of the injustice in this nation.

II. EUGENICS IN HISTORY

Eugenics: the study of or belief in the possibility of improving the qualities of the human species or a human population, especially by such means as discouraging reproduction by persons having genetic defects or presumed to have inheritable undesirable traits (negative eugenics) or encouraging reproduction by persons presumed to have inheritable desirable traits (positive eugenics).

- A. Plato first verbalized this idea, though not originally called eugenics. Plato theorized that an elite human race could be conceived if animal breeding tactics were applied to humans
- B. Eugenics rejects the Biblical principle that every man is predestined by God, called for a certain purpose, and created in the perfect image of God.

5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you" - Jer 1:5 NKJV

- C. Labeled “eugenics” by Sir Francis Galton in the late nineteenth century. He created the word from two Greek words. The first part, eu (eu), means good. Many words with the eu- prefix make a terrible thing appear good, with examples such as eulogy, euphemism, and euthanasia. The second part of the word comes from the Greek word gen (gen). Gen denotes birth or race
- D. In one of his addresses, Galton explained that after studying plant and animal methods, he was convinced that traits were hereditary, good and bad alike. Therefore, it is possible to breed people to eliminate the “undesirables” and to multiply the “desirables”
- E. Galton’s lack of basic respect for human worth was not an original attitude. He was greatly influenced by Reverend Thomas Malthus and Charles Darwin
- F. Reverend Thomas Malthus proposal was that the poor and working classes be kept from reproducing and that charity to the poor be stopped, which he thought encouraged population growth and reduced the food supply for the better classes of society
- G. Erasmus Darwin was grandfather to Charles Darwin and Francis Galton. Erasmus was actually the first to suggest the theory of evolution. Charles only revised the theory with more research and presented it in his infamous book On The Origin of Species in 1859. Darwin agreed with Malthus about over-population but promoted “natural selection” as the means of eliminating the weak.
- H. Galton used his cousin’s theory to strengthen eugenics: if society evolved from protoplasm, then the most evolved should not breed with the less evolved. Evolution and eugenics thereby created an atmosphere for an elitist, racist movement that sought to remove all those believed inferior.
- I. negative eugenics, sought to eliminate the undesirable through sterilization, euthanasia, segregation or by any other means of stopping the degenerate from reproducing. Sir Francis Galton died in 1911, leaving behind an alliance of racist men that desired to wipe out all mentally handicapped, physically handicapped, blind, poor, and colored portions of society.

III. EUGENICS IN AMERICA

- A. Because eugenics generally appeals to the wealthiest and most influential people, benefactors such as the Rockefeller family, Carnegie Institution, and Mrs. Harriman of the Union Pacific Railroad became part of the American eugenic legacy. They funded guilds and institutions such as the American Eugenics Society, Carnegie Institution’s Station for Experimental Evolution, and the Eugenics Records Office
- B. It is disappointing that some of the greatest philanthropists turned out to be racist eugenicists. With so much money backing the Americans, they eventually became the leading source for new studies, improved information, and tactics to promote eugenic

1. A key device used by eugenicists to support their work was the newly developed French intelligence test. Henry Goddard took this test and misconstrued its purpose adapting it to categorize American intelligence. Often biased and flawed, these tests were the basis for segregating and institutionalizing anyone deemed feeble-minded by the score they achieved. The terms created to categorize below-normal achievement were “imbecile,” “moron,” and “idiot”. Because eugenicists believed that intelligence was inherited, whole families were institutionalized based on one person’s score.
- C. With the ability to scientifically classify humans and segregate them from society, eugenicists began to push for legalized sterilization. The infamous case of Buck v. Bell reached the Supreme Court in 1927, making eugenic sterilization legal in the United States. Records show that approximately 60,000 sterilizations were done, with or without the consent of the patient by the 1950s. Twenty-seven states practiced sterilizations, with California performing the most at two-fifths of all done in the United States
 - a. Interesting to note that just a couple short years after the stock market crashed in 1929.
- D. The success of the Americans encouraged other nations to implement their own programs. While other countries only simulated United State’s model, Germany took eugenics to its most radical form. By the end of the 1920s, America realized that Germany was one of the new leaders in the global eugenics movement. The German eugenicists’ dream came true when Adolf Hitler came to power in 1933. He was a white supremacist and ardent follower and admirer of American eugenics.
- E. Soon sterilization, euthanasia, abortion, anti-miscegenation laws, and concentration camps were established. Besides the millions killed in the gas chambers, hundreds were also killed in the camp labs in the name of eugenic research. In Auschwitz alone, 1,300 people were killed in twin experimentation. The Rockefeller Foundation funded the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute, which oversaw the experimentations at Auschwitz.
- F. History shows that the post-World War II eugenics campaign fell from its pinnacle because the world vowed they would not allow the atrocities of Hitler to happen again, at least, not again in that form.
- G. After the war, eugenics became a discredited science because of its association with the Third Reich (Eugenics Stigmatization of eugenics). The movement would have all but died if it were not for Frederick Osborn. Osborn knew that the old strategies would no longer be effective; thus, he began a new eugenics movement that would later be called “crypto-eugenics.”
- H. The essence of this strategy was to no longer promote eugenics openly but to achieve their objectives through other organizations. By selectively pouring their money into other movements, they could still remove the unfit from society by utilizing the public’s naiveté of what the organization’s true motives were. Their goal was still the same as the Nazis’, but they would pursue it in a way that would not lead to another Nuremberg Trial.

IV. MARGARET SANGER

One of the main groups eugenicists began to conspire with were the birth control advocates. Birth control emerged just after the eugenics movement took off in the early 1910s. It was promoted and expanded mostly through the work of its founder Margaret Sanger. Sanger was a Malthusian eugenicist who believed the “dead weight of human waste” should be “eliminate[d]”

- A. Besides birth control, she advocated sterilization and eugenics. She did not openly support abortion due Havelock Ellis’s suggestion that “society was not quite ready for it”
- B. Sanger’s American Birth Control Federation, which would eventually become Planned Parenthood, was founded in 1922 and soon began its work at supplying birth control and targeting the undesirables. By 1930, Sanger had a clinic in the heart of Harlem. She taught them that birth control, not better prenatal care, would produce healthier children. From that point on, Sanger would continue to open clinics in strategic high-minority, low-income areas.
- C. During the early forties, Margaret Sanger instituted The Negro Project. The goal was to pull African American leaders and preachers into the movement so as to make the black community embrace the concepts birth control. In a letter she wrote to her cohort Dr. Clarence Gamble, she said, “we do not want word to go out that we want to exterminate the Negro population, and the minister is the man who can straighten out the idea if it ever occurs to any of their more rebellious members”
 - a. In a speech Frederick Osborn gave at the annual Galton Lecture in 1956, he said, “Let’s stop telling everyone that they have generally inferior genetic qualities for they will never agree. Lets base our proposals on the desirability of having children in homes where they will get affectionate and responsible care, and perhaps our proposals will be accepted”
- D. The American Eugenics Society played out their scheme through an organization that they created themselves. The veterans and rookies came together in 1952 to found the Population Council. With mainly Rockefeller’s money, they funded the research for a more effective birth control.
 1. The money was funneled into two main types of birth control research: the oral birth control pill and the IUD (intrauterine device).During the early 1950s, Planned Parenthood and the Population Council funded research to duplicate the sex hormone, which led to the creation of the pill in 1956. After testing it on humans in Puerto Rico, it entered the United States market in 1960.
 2. The Population Council began focusing on the IUD after Alan Guttmacher, the previous America Eugenics Society Vice President and current President of Planned Parenthood, suggested it. To eugenicists, the IUD was perfect because once inserted, women would not have children for years.

- E. The legality of birth control and contraception had been up to the states since the early 1900s. This caused a problem for the new eugenic backed movements. Thus Planned Parenthood went against the no contraceptives law in Connecticut by opening a clinic in hopes to reverse the law. The case Griswold v. Connecticut made its way up to the Supreme Court where the majority ruled that the Connecticut law was unconstitutional because it defied a married couple's right to privacy

V. DECEPTION IN AMERICA

- A. From the beginning, hormonal birth control was based on deception. Hormonal birth control (the Pill, the Minipill, IUD, Norplant, the morning-after-pill, Depo-Provera, RU-486) has always had three possible functions.
1. The first, often most confused as the only function, is to prevent ovulation.
 2. If the first function fails, a possible second function is to thicken the mucus of the cervix so that the sperm cannot reach the egg.
 3. The third function, a function which all hormone based contraception has, is to thin the lining of the uterus so that the fertilized egg, the baby, is not able to implant in the uterus lining and is thus aborted.
- B. 1970, claimed that conception begins with fertilization and ends with implantation in the uterus. In other words, it was not a baby until it was implanted into the uterus. To this day, America is aborting millions of babies in the name of contraception.
- a. With birth control legal and the Sexual Revolution in full swing, abortion was just another step in the direction America and the eugenicist were going. On January 22, 1973, abortion was legalized by the Supreme Court decision in Roe v. Wade. Not surprisingly, this case is full of eugenics.
- C. Besides being immersed in eugenics, Roe v. Wade was founded on lies. "Jane Roe" was really Norma McCorvey. This single, pregnant woman was used by two lawyers to legalize abortion. She never knew anything about the case or its proceedings except that she could get an abortion when the case was over. She never went through with the abortion. The first thing she heard about the case was on the news when Roe v. Wade was decided and abortion was made legal.
- D. Roe v. Wade's companion case, Doe v. Bolton, which made abortion legal in all three trimesters of pregnancy for virtually any reason, had a similar situation. "Mary Doe's" real name was Sandra Cano. Her husband was in jail, her kids had been placed to foster care, and she was pregnant at the time the lawyers approached her. When she agreed to be Doe, she thought it was to get a divorce and to get her children back.
- E. They tried to convince her to have an abortion, but she wouldn't agree to one because she believed abortion was wrong. She had no idea that her case would become the infamous Doe v. Bolton. Now both women are followers of Christ and are trying to reverse their cases

VI. THE TRUTH IS IN THE NUMBERS

1. 78% of Planned Parenthood clinics are in minority communities (Choice Nazi 3).
2. According to the Guttmacher Institute, an African American is three times more likely to have an abortion than a white woman.
Hispanics are 2 times more likely to have an abortion than white women.
3. African Americans constitute twelve percent of the national population and have 32% of the abortions.
4. For every one black child born, three are aborted.
5. 80% of unborn babies diagnosed with Down's syndrome are aborted.
6. The RU-486 pill was created by the same company that created Zyklon B gas for the Nazi death chambers .
7. There are 45% more sterilizations among African American women and 30% more sterilizations among Hispanics than among White women.
8. Not one school-based Planned Parenthood clinic is located in a white majority school.

In the most recent history of the United States of America, more specifically the upcoming Elections of 2012, many topics have arisen. Whether watching the nightly news, checking the recent polls, even asking those around you, of all the topics that most are concerned about, the ECONOMY is one of the largest issues on voter's minds. I tell you the largest issue on the forefront of much of America is simply a distraction.

The United States of America is in the midst of reaping what it has sown for years. There is a principle of what some might consider Karma, but I tell you, it is a supernaturally natural law called sowing and reaping. What we have sown for 40 years, we are beginning to reap the fruit: Innocent Bloodshed. We have legislated the legality of taking an innocent life.

I. BIBLICAL UNDERSTANDING: SOLA SCRIPTURA

If the Church is going to make an impact and begin to overturn the culture of death in America, we must first define and align ourselves with the Word of God. What is it that the Bible tells us?

A. Sola Scriptura

1. Simply means “Scripture Alone”
2. Martin Luther trumpeted this phrase as he stood against the false ideologies in his day and we must do the same

B. God has a standard

1. We have a clear understanding laid out in the Bible as to what God's Moral standard is for us.
2. The Church in America has forsaken the reality of God's word and has sold a false and toothless gospel.

12 For the word of God [is] living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things [are] naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we [must give] account. - Hbr 4:12-13 NKJV

- C. Our private lives and our public politics MUST align with God's Word and the foundation set forth for Life in scripture

II. WHAT IS SOWN WILL BE REAPED

5 "Surely for your lifeblood I will demand [a reckoning]; from the hand of every beast I will require it, and from the hand of man. From the hand of every man's brother I will require the life of man. 6 "Whoever sheds man's blood, By man his blood shall be shed; For in the image of God He made man. 7 And as for you, be fruitful and multiply; Bring forth abundantly in the earth And multiply in it." - Gen 9:5-7 NKJV

- A. There is a foundational truth established
 - 1. This is God's Law. It does not change.
 - 2. We have legally murdered more than 50 million children in America. There must be a reckoning

- B. What we are seeing in America, Judgment in the land. We have a blood issue!

33 'So you shall not pollute the land where you [are]; for blood defiles the land, and no atonement can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it. - Num 35:33 NKJV

Do you understand that we are a Democratic Republic? We are guilty. Not just the abortion doctors. Not just the politicians. You must understand, we are a nation of the people, by the people, and for the people. We elect our officials. We are going to be held accountable. WE HAVE BLOOD ON OUR HANDS, WE ARE ALL GUILTY.

- C. We see a startling reality in Psalms in regards to this issue

36 They served their idols, Which became a snare to them. 37 They even sacrificed their sons And their daughters to demons, 38 And shed innocent blood, The blood of their sons and daughters, Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; And the land was polluted with blood. 39 Thus they were defiled by their own works, And played the harlot by their own deeds. 40 Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people, So that He abhorred His own inheritance. - Psa 106:36-40 NKJV

- D. The Lord will come suddenly to deal with us

47 "Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 "In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. 49 "Therefore the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and [some] of them they will kill and persecute,' 50 "that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, 51 "from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation. - Luk 11:47-51 NKJV

E. God's justice may be slow. However, suddenly in one generation the sins are required for the sins of past generations. Lincoln cried out that God's judgments would come to USA because of slavery. Lincoln understood the civil war was God's judgment on USA. The Civil War was the day for reckoning for America for the bloodshed of slavery – 600,000 men died in the God's day of reckoning in America for slavery. If we do not deal with this blood in the courts of man, then it will be dealt with in the court of God.

1. President Lincoln's second Inaugural Address

Neither anticipated that the cause of the conflict might cease with or even before the conflict itself should cease. Each looked for an easier triumph, and a result less fundamental and astounding. Both read the same Bible and pray to the same God, and each invokes His aid against the other. It may seem strange that any men should dare to ask a just God's assistance in wringing their bread from the sweat of other men's faces, but let us judge not, that we be not judged. The prayers of both could not be answered. That of neither has been answered fully. The Almighty has His own purposes. "Woe unto the world because of offenses; for it must needs be that offenses come, but woe to that man by whom the offense cometh." If we shall suppose that American slavery is one of those offenses which, in the providence of God, must needs come, but which, having continued through His appointed time, He now wills to remove, and that He gives to both North and South this terrible war as the woe due to those by whom the offense came, shall we discern therein any departure from those divine attributes which the believers in a living God always ascribe to Him? Fondly do we hope, fervently do we pray, that this mighty scourge of war may speedily pass away. Yet, if God wills that it continue until all the wealth piled by the bondsman's two hundred and fifty years of unrequited toil shall be sunk, and until every drop of blood drawn with the lash shall be paid by another drawn with the sword, as was said three thousand years ago, so still it must be said "the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether."

III. WHAT MUST BE DONE?

"Every child a wanted child," is the well-known slogan for Planned Parenthood Foundation. Sounds great! Right? And yet it's founder boldly proclaimed, "The most merciful thing a large family can do to one of its infant members is kill it". In this reality is rooted a deep lie. The reality that is so deeply embedded is this – If a child is not wanted you can simply get rid of it, its your choice and you have that freedom.

We as the Church must stand around the battle cry of, "every child is a wanted child!"

A. Here in lies the issue.

1. The “wanted child” issue strikes much deeper and closer than we would care to recognize. We as the Church have not wanted children just as much as the world. The only difference is that the world kills its children through abortion and the Church has closed her natural womb through contraception.
2. We must address this issue of ‘wanting’. It is the Eternal desire in the heart of God.
15 ...He seeks godly offspring. Therefore take heed... - Mal 2:15 NKJV
3. We must first resolve in ourselves the issue of “unwanted children” before we can look out and condemn the world’s “unwanted children” issue, made manifest through abortion.
4. Yes, there is the reality of challenges that face families in regards to having children. We MUST remember that our God is a God of Grace. He is our sustainer. Are we really giving Him what He is seeking? Our hearts, and Godly offspring.

“While the secular society is aborting their children, the Church imbibes the same humanistic lie that children are an inconvenience. We should obey the biblical culture plumb line that says, “Children are a heritage of the lord...happy is the man who has his quiver full of them” (Ps. 127:4-5) Instead, we have adopted the lie that a large number of children born into a family were a blessing only for our past agrarian society. Rather than limiting our children to one or two per family, we could have shot for to ten God-given arrows into the heart of the voting booth. If we had, today there would be no pro-abortion leaders or judges in our government. We would have voted them out before there ever was a Roe v Wade...IF you believe that the Church is to exercise dominion in the earth, then I challenge you to repent and proclaim the unrescinded biblical mandate: Be fruitful, multiply, and subdue the earth with godly offspring.” -Lou Engle The Reformers Pledge (pg 108)

B. Take back the polling booths

20 Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law[government that legalizes evil], Have fellowship with You[God]? 21 They gather together against the life of the righteous, And condemn innocent blood. - Psa 94:20-21 NKJV

1. God will not have fellowship with a government that practices iniquity by passing laws legalizing the shedding of innocent blood through abortion
2. Our leaders will be held accountable to God for their blatant rebellion
13 You shall not murder – Ex 20:13 NKJV
3. As stated before, our government officials are elected by us, the people. Therefore, when we vote for those who rule for abortion, God will actually hold us accountable for not voting in alignment with His law.

4. If we vote for ungodly leaders, we actually are having fellowship with a throne of iniquity.
5. Voting is not a lighthearted act. We cannot go into a voting box and vote for an individual simply because they are charismatic or because they promise to change the economy!
6. Voting is an act of conscience and a prophetic witness to a higher King and a higher Law.

William Wilberforce was a man who challenged the politics of neutrality and the moral decline of his society. He declared of the slave trade:

“There is a principle above everything that is political, and when I reflect on the command that says, ‘thou shall do not murder’ believing that authority to be divine, how can I dare to set out any reasoning of my own against it? And when we think of eternity and of the future consequences of all human conduct what is there in this life that could make any man contradict the dictates of his conscience, the principles of justice, the laws of religion, and of God.

(1) Wilberforce actually believed that he would be held eternally accountable if he supported the slave trade.

(2) He considered his vote as an act of murder

IV. IT’S A FAST, NOT A BOYCOTT

There are many companies that give to Planned Parenthood. In fact our Government gives to Planned Parenthood. It is not just our vote that we are held accountable for. How do we spend our resources? I suggest to you that we will be held accountable for where we put our money.

I do not consider boycotting a company. I do however consider fasting from the products and services of companies. Fasting not only tenderizes my heart, but it moves the Fathers heart. Consider the impact we can have if we Fast and Pray! Those are the two prescribed methods in the bible. Just read the book of Joel.

So, who gives to Planned Parenthood?

Life Decisions International is a group that researches those companies that give to abortion giant Planned Parenthood.

Kenneth C. Garvey, LDI’s Director of Communications, tells LifeNews in a statement that the boycott has worked. He estimates the boycott has cost Planned Parenthood more than $40 million since the project LDI started began.

“As a direct result of the commitment, action and prayers of pro-family people, at least 282 corporations have stopped funding Planned Parenthood,” he said. “This should serve as a testament to those who think it impossible to change corporate behavior.”
